

Adjoining the Hotel will be an independent 500 delegate conference centre with banqueting facilities. This will be managed by an experienced conference company and it expected that this will create a year round demand for accommodation and facilities within the resort. This in turn will ensure that there will be a strong rental demand for properties, benefiting owners who wish to capitalise from this opportunity.